

The Rotary Clubs of Kristiansund, Averøy and Frei
District 2275, Norway

Invite 12 young people from all over the world to

“From coast to mountain”

Summer camp in NORWAY 2016

We would like to give you a taste of our coastline and fishing, from deep fjords to high mountains in our district. We will learn about fishing in the ocean, salmon farming, mountain hiking and musk-safari. In Norway, these animals live only in the mountains of Dovrefjell.

Theme: “From coast to mountain”

Dates: Arrival 22. July. Departures 31. July

Alternatively, you can arrive one day before and departure one day later if it is a better flight plan for you

Participants: 6 girls and 6 boys, all from different countries, age 16 -20

Arrival/Departures: The participants will be met by Rotarians at the Kristiansund Airport Kvernberget, or at the airport at the neighbouring town Molde (Årø Airport). Alternatively, you can arrive Trondheim Airport - Værnes. From here, you have more than 225 km travel with bus or the high-speed-boat called Kystekspresen.

Organizaton of the camp: Kristiansund Rotary Club is responsible for the camp, with assistance from the neighbouring clubs Averøy and Frei. The activities will take place in the vicinity of Kristiansund town, except the musk-safari at Dovrefjell, which is situated approximately 200 km south of Kristiansund. This is a mountainous area, with peaks reaching more than 2000 m above sea level.

Costs: Travel expenses to Kristiansund, pocket money and insurance must be paid by the participants. The organizing Rotaryclub sponsor the cost of the whole stay and all activities

Accomodation: Mostly in host families, except during the musk-safari, when we will stay in huts in the middle of the Dovrefjell mountains call Reinheim.

Insurance: The participants must be insured against illness, accidents and third party damages. No insurance is provided by the camp

Language and food: English is standard. Standard Norwegian and European food

Application: Obtain the application form at your Rotary’s home page. Deadline is 31st March 2016.

Procedure: 12 people will be selected for participation. They will receive more information in good time before the camp start.

If you would like to apply for this camp, please contact the Camps Coordinator, Alistair Knox - email: camps@youthexchange.org.uk

WELKOME TO NORWAY AND KRISTIANSUND, AVERØY, FREI and DOVREFJELL

