

The Rotary Clubs of Randaberg, Gandsfjord and Sola

Invite 12 young people from all over the world to the Summer Camp

“Along the North Sea in the Norwegian Oil Capital Stavanger”

Dates: August 24 to September 2, 2019

The group: Up to 12 participants, 6 boys and 6 girls, one from each country, between 18 and 22 years of age.

Arrival/departure: Stavanger Airport Sola (SVG). Participants will be met at the airport and brought back to the airport at departure time by Rotarians.

Experience the big sky, the sea, the beaches and the country in the most affluent region in Norway outside Oslo. Stavanger has been the oil capital of Norway since the 1970s. It is also one of the most productive agricultural regions of the country. At the Summer Camp you will be introduced to and discuss different aspects of the region and get hands on experience in the course of ten days. You will meet new people and leave with new friends from many countries.

Cost: A fee of €100 Euros will be required upon arrival. Traveling expenses to and from Norway, pocket money, and travel insurance etc. must be covered by participants.

Accommodation: with host families in the respective Rotary clubs.

Insurance: Participants must be insured against illness, accident and third party damages.

Language and food: English will be the language of communication throughout the camp. German will be spoken by some of the hosts.

Application: To apply for this camp, contact the Camps Coordinator:

Alistair Knox - email: camps@youthexchange.org.uk

Local contact: Gunnar Nerheim.
